SYLLABUS
Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Programme

Objectives:

The Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Programme in Islamic History and Culture aims at providing students with a strong foundation of knowledge about the Islamic civilization, a rich cultural heritage that Islam built over the centuries and a deeper understanding of the mark that Islam has left on the humanity. Along with the core courses, students will also enroll themselves in some cross-disciplinary courses that will help them to understand the world beyond Islamic history and culture and face the challenge of the real and complex world in the twenty first century. The knowledge and skills that they will be able to acquire in this programme in Islamic History and Culture will also help them to look for career in teaching, research, religious institutions, and Government and Non-Government organizations. It will also help students prepare for higher education in respective fields.

Semester System:

The four year BA Honors programme is divided into twelve semesters. There are three semesters in an academic year. Each semester is of four months duration which covers instruction, course-works and examinations.
